

Annemarie Kaan, MCN, RN

Annemarie is Clinical Nurse Specialist in the heart transplant and acute and chronic heart failure programs at St Paul's Hospital. Annemarie started her career in 1980 in Sydney, Australia. She has been working in the areas of heart failure, transplant and mechanical circulatory support since 1987. Annemarie has worked at St Paul's Hospital for the last 9 years. She is the Education Chair for the Canadian Council of Cardiovascular Nurses – BC/Yukon branch, Education Chair for the Canadian Heart Failure Network and is Chair of the Exam Committee for the American Board for Transplant Certification. She has been a Clinical Nurse Specialist since 1991, holds a Master of Clinical Nursing and is an Adjunct Professor with UBC Faculty of Nursing.