

Brother Thomas Maddix, CSC, D.Min

Brother Thomas Maddix, CSC, D.Min joined Providence in August 2004 as Vice President, Mission, Ethics & Spirituality. A member of the Brothers of Holy Cross, he brings to the position a strong background of leadership in mission and organizational integrity, and the fostering of a culture grounded in a living spirituality within and for Catholic health organizations.

Prior to joining Providence, Tom was Vice President, Organizational Advancement with the Caritas Health Group in Edmonton. His areas of responsibility there included mission ethics, spiritual care and leadership development. He also served for 10 years as Director of Mission Services for the Alberta Catholic Health Corporation and taught courses at St. Stephen's Theological College at the University of Alberta.

Tom received his Doctor of Ministry in Organization Ethics and Spirituality from the Pacific School of Theology in Berkeley California. He began his career in Catholic education, teaching high school, college and at Notre Dame University in South Bend, Indiana. He is also the author of two books, a contributor to two others and has written numerous articles.