

PHC CREST

Centre for Research Training for Nursing and Allied Health

INAUGURAL

CREST Conference

KEYNOTES

Honouring our Values, Shaping our Future: The Rise of the Clinician-Scientist in Nursing and Allied Health

Dr. Skye Barbic, OT, PhD

Empowerment at the Bedside: Stories of Change and Future-
Making through Practice-Based Research in Dementia Care

Dr. Lillian Hung, RN, PhD

WORKSHOP

The First Line of Evidence: Case Reports, Case Series and Case Studies

Michelle Carter & Iva Cheung

PRESENTATIONS

Clinician-Scientist Panel Discussion

Research Challenge Rapid Fire Presentations

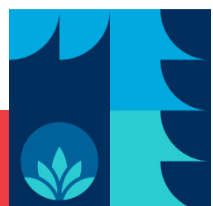

NOVEMBER 6, 2025

Conference Centre - St. Paul's Hospital with virtual attendance options

Free Registration

<http://tiny.cc/CRESTConf25>

CREST Conference Program Overview

Thursday, November 6, 2025

Conference Centre, St. Paul's Hospital (with virtual attendance options)

8:10

Welcome and Opening Remarks

8:30

Keynote Presentation

Honouring our Values, Shaping our Future: The Rise of the Clinician-Scientist in Nursing and Allied Health

Dr. Skye Barbic

Head Scientist, Foundry

Associate Professor, Occupational Science & Occupational Therapy, Faculty of Medicine, UBC

Canada Research Chair, Integrated Youth Services

9:30

Panel Discussion

The Road and Reality to Being a Clinician-Scientist

Moderator: Aggie Black

Panelists: Erin Waters, Dr. Erica Wang, Dr. Sandra Lauck, Dr. Becky Palmer

10:40

Rapid Fire Presentations

Celebrating Practice-based Research: Rapid Fire Presentations of Completed Research Challenge Projects

12:30

Workshop (concurrent)

The First Line of Evidence: Case Reports, Case Series, and Case Studies

Facilitators: Michelle Carter, Iva Cheung

13:30

Networking (concurrent)

CREST Open House

15:00

Keynote Presentation

Empowerment at the Bedside: Stories of Change and Future-Making through Practice-Based Research in Dementia Care

Dr. Lillian Hung

Head, IDEA Lab

Associate Professor, School of Nursing, UBC

Canada Research Chair, Senior Care

15:50

Closing Remarks